

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: March 25, 2009

CONTACT: Dixie Laws, (916) 566-3992 or Shelly Willis at (916) 566-3971

Free Downtown Public Art Tour for Teachers

WHAT: A free tour of public art sites downtown is sponsored by the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission.

DATE: Friday, April 10th, 10:00 – 12:00 am.

LOCATION: The tour is planned for from Participants will take an overview tour of the major public art sites in the downtown area: the Convention Center, the New City Hall and the Cal/EPA Building.

Sacramento, CA -- Learn how to use public art in your classroom! Participants will receive a free CD with a power point program of the art, curriculum to use in their classrooms, and information about the free educational services of the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission's Art in Public Places Program. Free public art tours and in class presentations are also available for school groups.

For more information, or to register for this tour, contact Dixie Laws, APP Education Coordinator, by April 7th, at dixie@dixielaws.com or 566-3992.

For further information on programs and opportunities through the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission go to: www.sacmetroarts.org.

#