“The Fogscapes series represents hours of computer time combining different combinations of filters and sharpening techniques in an effort to capture the feeling of being enveloped in the fog's peaceful ethereal world,” says Satterlee

Donald Satterlee has worked as a commercial photographer in Sacramento since 1977, and has produced many of the images seen in ads, brochures, annual reports and bill boards around Northern California. Images from the Fogscapes series have been featured in Sacramento's Inside the City, Land Park News, Arden Park News and Sacramento Magazine. Several images from the series are included in UC Davis Medical Center and Kaiser Hospital corporate art collections.

The Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission is a City and County joint agency. For more information, please contact Lorrie Kempf at 808-3977.
